Melon, Fireworks Top 4th Agenda

A big, booming day is planned for Canyon residents today to celebrate the annual Fourth of July.

With most city businesses, federal and city offices closed for the day, hundreds of hungry and thirsty residents are expected to flock to Conner Park today for a chain of events to be sponsored by various local organizations.

Everything from Buffalo Burgers to watermelon is on the menu and the day will be capped with a fireworks display.

Sponsors include the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the VFW auxiliary, the American Legion, Canyon noon and evening Lions Clubs, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Canyon Fire Department, and the women's division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Activities begin at 9 a.m. with a service club baseball game. The Kiwanis Club team will take on the Rotary Club at the Little League park and no admission will be charged spectators.

A bicycle race usually scheduled for Canyon youngsters by the Police Department has been postponed this year. Chief Al Stewart said the bike races will be run in September along with the around-the-square races sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

A Little League girls' baseball game will be played at 3:30 p.m. today to begin afternoon action. Then at 5:30 p.m., all-star players from the four Canyon girls' softball teams will play at the Little League park for a play-off game.

Members of Boy Scout Troop 31 will sell Buffalo Burgers, potato chips and soft drinks at the park from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. The three-item menu will go for $1 per person. Scoutmaster Shug Bonds said the troop has 100 pounds of buffalo meat for the cookout.

A dunking board featuring local residents will also be sponsored by the troop beginning at 4 p.m.

Formal ceremonies for the Fourth of July celebration will begin at 7 p.m. with an invocation. Local boy scouts will handle the ceremonies, which will also include a flag-raising and the National Anthem.

At 7:30 p.m., three activities are scheduled to run concurrently at the park.

Infield collisions are all a part of the game in the little leagues as these two players try for the ball with neither having success. Today's issue of The News contains pictures of each of the teams which participated in summer baseball. The pictures are sponsored by various local merchants. See pages 6 and 7.

Wanted Man Arrested After Three-State Hunt

A 29-year-old man allegedly using Canyon as the headquarters for a three-state check swindling operation was arrested about 6:30 a.m. Wednesday by Randall County deputies as he left his Canyon Creek Apartments home.

Leland Pat Casey remained in Randall County jail Wednesday. He is wanted by the FBI on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution and by several states on check swindling charges.

Casey, veteran of prison terms in three states, gave no resistance when halted in his car as he left his apartment Wednesday.

Deputies had staked out the apartment all night Tuesday to early Wednesday after learning Tuesday afternoon of Casey's operations and the pending charges in other states.

Deputy Harold Hooks said Casey "knew what to do," when he stopped the accused's car.

"He got out of the car and put his hands way up and said he was unarmed," Hooks said.

The deputy then found a loaded 9-shot .22 caliber revolver on the front seat of the Casey vehicle.

A search of the Casey apartment was conducted by deputies who found many handguns, rifles, stereo record players, television sets, radios, camera equipment and other items.

Deputy Recil Johnson said Casey admitted his check swindle scheme had produced between $60,000 and $70,000 in revenue in recent months.

Deputies were alerted to Casey's Canyon operation after he allegedly tried to open a bank account at a local bank with a deposit of $800. He then withdrew about $100. Suspicious, bank employees telephoned an Albuquerque bank, upon which the original deposit check was drawn and learned that Casey was wanted on a warrant in that city.

The check indicated that Casey is wanted not only by the FBI but also by officers in New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

Commissioners Jolted By Bid Prices To Construct New Amarillo Annex

"Have you got a sponge so I can cry?"

With a half-smile on his face, County Commissioner Bill Butler summed up the emotions of the other three commissioners after they opened bids Monday for construction of a new South Amarillo courthouse annex.

"I can't believe that damn thing (the annex) is worth any $60 a square foot," chimed in Commissioner John Fulgenzi. "Boy, I can't believe building costs are that high."

"It looks like they shot us out of the saddle," said Commissioner Paul Lindsey.

Bid figures from three construction firms were more than twice the figure anticipated by commissioners who had planned to spend not more than $300,000 for a new annex.

Other bids hovered around that figure.

The bids apparently knocked the feet from under commissioners' plans to construct the annex. They also made moot the issue of the legality of the construction.

"It's happening everywhere," Architect Art Vaughan told his commissioner-clients. "The only recommendation I have unless you want to raise the money and build a building is to let us analyze the structure and find out where the costs are that appear to be problems and report back to the court."

Vaughan said his firm would examine the low bid to try to determine why costs were so high.

Commissioners accepted his recommendation and he is to report back next Monday.

Commissioners had planned to spend $300,000 for the project but had been warned only two weeks ago by Vaughan that building costs were going up.

With the bids received Monday the cost per square foot for the construction would be between $54 and $65 depending on whether the building included a basement.

Page and Wirtz bid a base price of $639,000 for the construction with $90,000 to be deducted if commissioners decided not to build the basement.

Other bidders were Wiley Hicks with a base bid of $658,457 with $83,970 to be deducted if basement is not built; Panhandle Engineers, base bid of $635,950 with a deduction of $84,500 for basement; and E.P. Taylor, base bid of $651,848 with a deduction of $82,388.

In other business Monday, commissioners reaffirmed their desire to have a 250-foot radio antenna tower moved from the downtown square to the county barn in south Canyon.

Ray Lawrence, a local businessman, protested the move from the square but to no avail.

Commissioners also voted to give $150 to the Metro Intelli-

City-county Bargaining To Focus On Dump, Fires

Shared service costs won't be any cheaper when city and county officials get together this summer to begin another year's round of negotiations for a new contract.

Costs for providing services to Randall County rural residents are spiraling, city officials say, and they have no doubts the same is also true of the costs for providing county services to the city.

City Manager George Loudder said two key areas which will have to be eyed closely when the officials come together are solid waste disposal and rural fire service.

County Commissioners John Fulgenzi and Paul Lindsey are to meet with a contingent from the city to begin negotiations on a new contract for another year. Last summer for the first time city and county contracted services with the county picking up about an $18,000 tab for services in the rural areas.

Loudder indicated the costs will go up.

He cited figures from the last fiscal year to back up his feeling. He said from April 1973 to March 1974, a total of 5640 individual vehicles used the landfill. That figure represents a 22 per cent increase over the same period in 1972-73.

"Our costs are rising there from inflation and increased use in the public sector," he said. "It's taking more and more of our time in the public part as opposed to the city area."

Loudder said fire service for rural areas has also increased during the past fiscal year. Currently, the county pays a lump sum through the negotiated contract for the fire services with the City of Canyon. The county pays the City of Amarillo to provide rural fire service on a per-call basis.

Loudder said the city answered calls to 18 building fires last fiscal year, a figure which represents a 50 per cent increase over the previous year. Fire crews also answered calls to 75 non-building fires, a whopping 92 per cent

Americans are free to disagree over what should be considered basic principles — but the argument is always settled for us (to our dismay) when we violate a basic principle over a period of time.

Now City Worried About High Costs Of Building

A construction cost figure more than double the amount anticipated by Randall County commissioners to build a new south Amarillo annex has given Canyon city officials a bad case of the jitters on the eve of bid opening for possible construction of a new city hall.

"It sure is frightening," City Manager George Loudder said this week after learning of the bid figures given the county for its construction project.

Bids for construction of a new city hall are to be opened at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Construction bids for the south Amarillo county annex were opened by county commissioners Monday and commissioners were shocked to learn the bids were more than twice as high as the projected cost figures.

"It doesn't make me feel good," Loudder said of the county's experience with inflated bid prices. "I hope it doesn't happen to us."

County commissioners had been prepared for a bid figure slightly over the $300,000 they had hoped to spend for construction of a new annex. A hushed silence fell over commissioners courtroom as bids ranging from just under $650,000 to just over that figure were read.

Loudder said spiraling costs have been the major worry for Canyon commissioners, who for more than a year have planned the construction of a new city hall to include fire department, police department, city administrative services and a library.

"I hope HD&R (the city architectural firm) has done a thorough and complete job and I feel confident they have, but in this day and time. . ." Loudder said, speaking of the firm's projections on costs.

The city manager said the firm has estimated the 37,500 square foot building will cost about $37 per square foot to build.

County commissioners learned Monday that the cost per square foot for construction of their proposed new annex would be between $54 and $60 per square

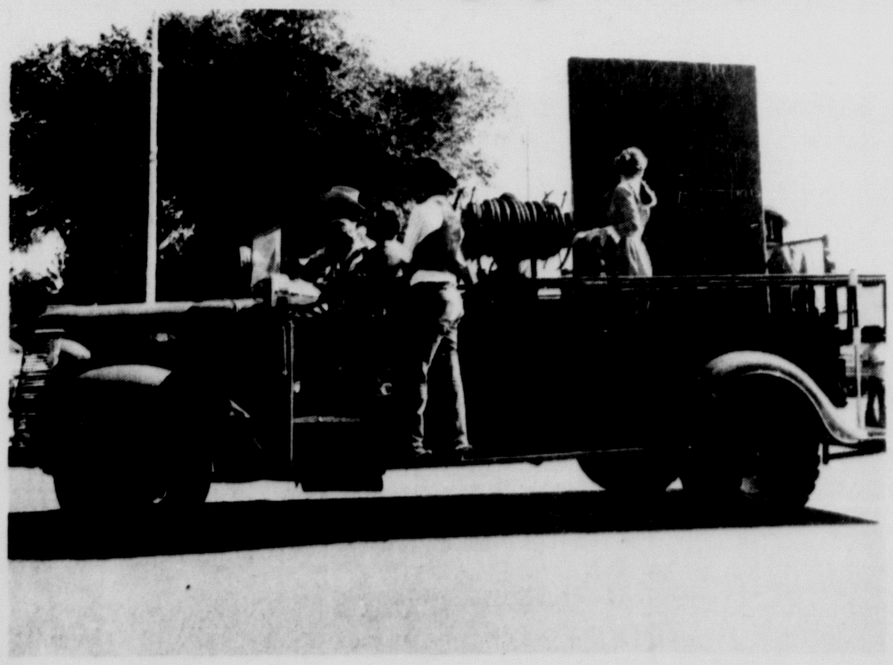
Hundreds Enjoy Canyon Days Celebration With Parade, Feed, Races



The Canyon Days Celebration parade featured more than 50 entries, among them this float from the Amarillo Little Theatre featuring the melodrama now showing there.

Pretty girls, prancing horses and a prodigious picnic pleased Canyon residents last week end as the annual Canyon Days Celebration ended with final running of pony express races and a giant barbecue on Saturday.

More than 700 persons consumed 800 pounds of open-fire cooked beef, prepared by a group of local men headed by County Judge Woody Pond.

Prior to the barbecue, several hundred of the city's younger citizens lined the streets along 4th Avenue and 19th Street to watch a blocks-long parade travel across town.

Clowns, motorcyclists, beauty queens, politicians, old cars and lots of horses made the trek which ended at Conner Park in time for the picnic.

Canyon Rotary Club won the award for best float in the parade. The float carried about 20 local musicians led by High School Principal John Sommers, who provided the only music in the parade.

The events officially got underway for Canyon Days with the preliminary rounds of the World Championship Pony Express Race on Friday night. The races, which featured teams from Oklahoma and Texas, were sponsored by the Randall County Sheriff's Posse.

Finals were run Saturday night following the barbecue and the Canyon Days drawing for more than 40 prizes including a color television set.

Several hundred persons were present for the drawing of names for merchandise donated by Canyon merchants.

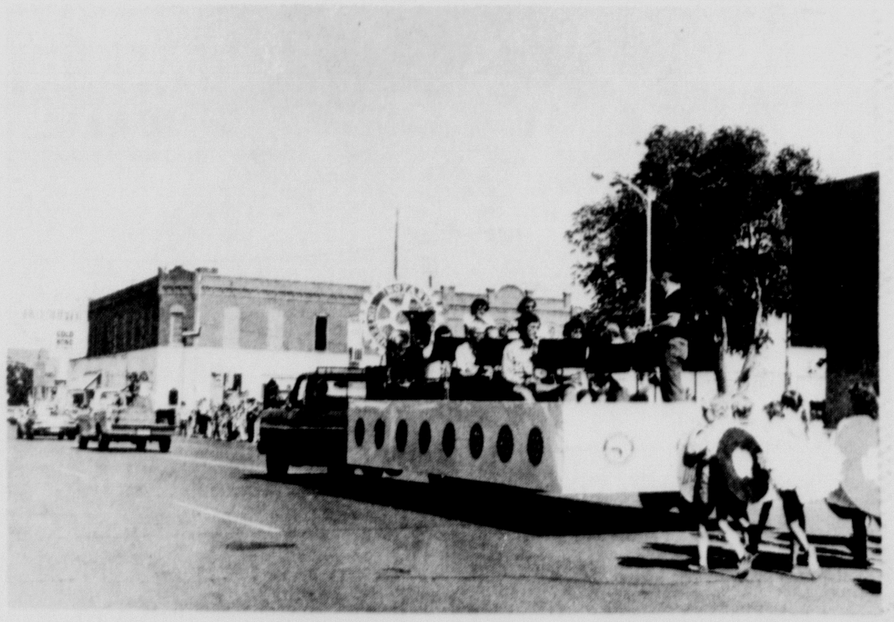
(See ENJOY, Page 9)



Another float in the parade, the float which won the best of parade honors last week end was put together by Rotary Club members and carried a German band headed by Rotary Club president John Sommer. The float was also set up at Conner Park and played various numbers for picnickers and barbecue eaters.

Byrd's Recreation Club is one of the focal gathering points in Canyon.

It gives the retired folks of Canyon a place to go and enjoy themselves. It also provides a place for younger folks to go and learn something from older folks.

Incidentally, you can also play pool and dominoes in Byrd's Recreation Club. Roy Byrd, the owner, doesn't allow gambling or rough talk and once a customer came in clad in shorts and Roy told him dress properly next time.

Roy Byrd is a no nonsense man. He meant it.

The recreation club is famous. It was once written up in The Christian Science Moniter, reputed to be the best edited newspaper in the world.

I'm in Roy's debt not only because I like to play dominoes but because the club has allowed me to meet and know some people whom I might not ever have known well without the opportunity the club provided.

There's Happy and Paul Black, Gene Peppard, Dave Curtis, Bill Hall, Leonard Winters. . . just to name a few.

I've uncovered several good news stories at the recreation club. There I learned about a hog cholera outbreak about four years ago and it was there that I learned about the devotion of a dog on the Tony Burrus farm to a horse with which he had become pals.

The horse died and the carcass was dragged out into a pasture. The dog took up vigil by his friend and would not leave until only the bones of his buddy remained.

I've learned more Randall County history . . . the kind that did not get in print . . . than is available anywhere else. And I've learned it from the men who lived it.

Roy Byrd is himself a fabulous character. He has known affluence and lesser affluence and folks who know him say you'd never know the difference.

"If you can walk with kings
Nor lose the common touch,
If you can count all men some
But none too much."

Roy Byrd is performing a real service to his community. He is one of Randall County's first citizens.

The House will never bring a bill of impeachment against the President.

I'm going to stick my neck out and make this prediction.

The American people are weary of the whole proceedings but this is not the real reason. A precarious stock market couldn't stand it.

In the unlikely event that the bill is returned, watch the stock market slide.

Only the funeral directors lucky enough to be located close to tall buildings will prosper. We can expect a world wide depression.

I am sick that the administration has made nuclear material and know-how available in the Middle East. I have a picture of Arab terrorists with suitcased atomic bombs fanning out over the world.

What will happen if civilization is told that H-bombs are located in every major city on the globe and is given an ultimatum?

Judge Preston Dial closed the Henley mass murder trial to the press and public in San Antonio and then reversed himself.

He even booted the defendant's relatives.

As far as I know this is a first in this country.

Judge Dial could save the state a lot of money by declaring a mistrial and starting over. He is almost certain to be reversed by the high court if the trial goes badly for the defendant.

SPANISH DAGGER and Barrel Cactus in the front yard of the Wayne Powers home, 504 10th Avenue, were captured in photographs by son, Dennis, who was a May graduate of Amarillo College and is currently attending police academy training. The cacti bed was "planted because it is less work, takes less water and is still attractive" according to Mrs. Powers. The Powers family have lived in Canyon 5½ years during which time son, Dennis, earned his high school diploma here and daughter, Shirley, married C.L. Miller, who is presently stationed in Germany. Shirley is pictured amid the summer setting in the Powers' front yard as she awaits completion of summer school courses and will join C.L. in Germany late this summer. Both Mr. and Mrs. Powers are native residents of Lubbock and have collected a good assortment of cacti, driftwood, various colorful rock, lava rock and other items of interest for their yard through vacation travels and neighbors and friends who have contributed from their travels. Prior to planting the "cacti garden" the Powers laid a plastic ground cloth which was covered with white gravel rock to accent the various plants.

Keith Hines Retires From Railroad Career

Keith Hines, age 61, retired July 1 as Santa Fe agent at Canyon, after 43 years service.

He has worked as agent and operator in the state of Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico, since he began employment August 19, 1931.

Hines' railroad service has all been on the Plains division in the operating department, first working as an extra apprentice operator, 1931-34. He was a graduate apprentice until June, 1937, when he moved to the telegraphers' extra board, working at many points on the division. He was assigned as an agent-telegrapher in 1939, and moved to Canyon in that capacity on March 10, 1966.

His span of service has taken him through the darkest days of the depression up through the era of the Santa Fe great prosperity. When Keith was employed as apprentice operator at Fargo, Okla., in 1931, Santa Fe was operated by steam locomotives and a few gas electric "doodle bugs," used mostly on branch passenger runs.

He has seen the passing of the steam locomotives and their replacement by diesel. At the beginning of his employment nearly all reports were made by hand with indelible pencil and placed between tissue sheets, then pressed overnight. He has one of these presses in his collection. The computor now takes care of all reports.

While serving his apprenticeship at Canadian, under agent C.O. Johnson, Keith had many interesting experiences. They had a special prison car on the back of passenger trains in the 1930's to take Federal prisoners to Alcatraz. It was Keith's job to take the baggage truck to the Harvey House, get box lunches, and deliver to the prison car.

During the time the gold was being moved to Ft. Knox on passenger trains, the cars were heavily guarded by Marines, and all who worked near the trains were required to wear special badges.

During the drouth years of the 30's, the government shipped train loads of cattle to eastern Oklahoma and Kansas for pasture. Many of these cattle were loaded and fed at Canadian.

Hines assisted in unloading and reloading, and recalls that many times the workers went without rest and worked around the clock.

During his employment on the railroad he has seen the coming and going of the luxury passenger trains. When he was first employed, the California Limited was Santa Fe's deluxe passenger train. All trains stopped at the Harvey Houses along the way for meals. Other luxury passenger trains have been the Scout, Chief, Super Chief, San Francisco Chief, Texas Chief, and many more. Dining cars were added and Harvey Houses closed.

He remembers when very few passenger cars were airconditioned. The windows were open with wind and dust flying in. Dome cars and high level chair cars also came in vogue in the 25 years he has been in Canyon.

Sometimes as many as 10 passenger trains have run daily through Canyon. At that time all mail and express was handled on passenger trains.

During his tour of duty he has worked under many superintendents, trainmasters, chief dispatchers, and other officials. J.B. Briscoe was superintendent when he started in 1931 and gave him the nickname "Tugboat" and he has been known as "Tug" to fellow employees through the years.

During his apprentice years and as a working operator, he has worked for many of the famous agents: E.R. Hall, C.O. Taggart, Jim Hardy, O.T. Hendrix, W.W. Vineyard, Wayne Stark, Ed Blake, A.Z. Ludden, Bill Carrey, Harry Sherrieb, J.P. Nix, Hob Herd, Tom Ludden, Joe Beyer, Ray Witcher, Chester Huff, Harry Campfield, and many more.

Of all the improvements he has seen come on the railroad, he believes the White high speed train order delivery crane was the greatest. Previously, all train orders and messages were handed up with wooden sticks which were thrown off by the train crews about a half mile down the track from the depot. The procedure of handing the messages up to the train crew involved considerable anxiety on the part of the operator as he had to stand very close to the moving trains, which were going at high speeds.

Mr. Hines has always been impressed with all the wonderful officials he has worked for. They have had the employees' interest at heart and provided better working conditions and equipment. He feels they truly live up to the Santa Fe slogan: "Always on the move toward a better way."

He has also been impressed with the Santa Fe safety program which down through the years has brought a phenomenal improvement in working conditions and drop in injuries. Mr. Hines has had only one personal injury in 43 years. That happened when a piece of brake shoe flew off a fast moving train and struck him in the leg.

Among the famous cars on the railroad, Mr. Hines recalls the 409 belonging to Mr. Briscoe. This car was always on the move. Another well known car was the pullman, the Ferdinand Magellan, also called the "Rolling White House." This car was used by Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Once when President Roosevelt moved from Washington to San Diego, he stopped at Waynoka and the Hines got a first hand view while the train was stopped.

Another time when the Hines were in Washington, D.C., President Truman was boarding the Ferdinand Magellan at the Union Station at the time they were in the station. This train car had steel armor plating, 5/8 inch thick riveted onto sides and bottom, and conventional window glass has been replaced by bullet-proof windows which are three inches thick. It was stored in an underground siding between uses. Today the Ferdinand Magellan can be seen in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mr. Hines has worked under the leadership of six different presidents of Santa Fe. They are Presidents Storey, Bledsoe, Engel, Gurley, Marsh, and Reed.

Hines recalls that one evening when working with Dispatcher Sally at Canadian, he asked off for lunch. Sally gave him 20 minutes and it took 30. When he returned, the phone was ringing and Sally asked if he had just gotten back. When he said he had just gotten back in, Sally told him, "Bring your lunch tomorrow, I've been bringing mine for 40 years."

When Hines went to work, all the main line rail was 90 lb., 39 foot lengths on siding and back track 52 pound rail was used. Now the main line tracks are built with 136 pound welded rail, with few if any joints between stations.

In years passed, 12 section crews were used between Amarillo and Clovis. All maintenance was by hand. Now with mechanical equipment, only one section crew is needed to maintain the high speed track previously handled by 12 crews.

Hines has many hobbies to take up his retirement time. For many years he has been a beekeeper, but had to discontinue this hobby because he has developed an allergy to the sting.

One hobby he enjoys is restoring furniture and collecting antiques and railroad memorabilia. He has a collection of railroad lanterns, some of which are rare and could not be replaced. Through the years he has been a successful water witch and has witched over 1,000 successful wells.

Keith is married to the former Janney Bee Meier of Waynoka, Okla. Janney Bee is a graduate of West Texas State University with a major in art. She especially enjoys doing watercolor and has many displayed in their home.

The Hines are members of the First Christian Church of Canyon. She is a member of the Eastern Star and he is a charter member of Lubbock Consistory for 32nd degree Masons.

Keith and Janney have three children. The oldest, Sondra, lives in Manhattan, Kan. She will complete her doctorate in Foods and Nutrition in December from Kansas State University and has two daughters.

Stephen owns and operates Steve's Auto Parts here in Canyon. Steve and his wife, Mary Alice, have a son and a daughter.

Michael lives in Amarillo and is employed by the Amarillo Fire Department. Both boys are graduates of Canyon High School.

The Hines plan to live in Canyon after retirement and plan several trips in the near future.

Miss Walker Honored With Wedding Gifts

Miss Jan Walker, bride-elect of Richard Warren, was the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower in the Amarillo home of Mrs. John Hodges, 2806 Bonham, recently.

Guests were received by Miss Walker and Miss Hodges and presented in turn to Mrs. R.E. Walker, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Bernard Warren of Canyon, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

A pink lace cloth covered the refreshment table which featured a floral arrangement of dark pink bougainvillea. Mrs. Roger Fenlaw and Mrs. Howard Willis, co-hostesses, served the punch, sandwiches, fresh fruit plate and cake to guests attending.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it — and so do its readers.

Miss Neff Honored With Bridal Gifts

Miss Mary Sue Neff, bride-elect of Bob Hogue, was the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Jim Dawson, 409 Foster Lane.

The bride-elect's chosen colors were used for the occasion. Covered with white lace over blue underlay, the table was centered with an artificial arrangement of yellow and white daisies which were presented as a gift to the bride by the hostesses.

Mrs. Ernest Neff of McAllen, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Jim Hogue of Sundown, mother of the prospective bridegroom, were present for the occasion to receive guests.

Alternating at the guest book were Lynn Preston and Donna Driggers and Lana Myers registered the wedding gifts.

Jimmy Byrds Tell Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy L. Byrd of Hereford announce the June 27 birth of a son, Christopher Eugene, who weighed 6 pounds and measured 20½ inches on arrival at Neblett Memorial Hospital in Canyon.

The infant's father is employed with Ron Christ Farms at Hereford and the couple has four other children including, Robert, 7; Ronald, 6; Angela, 4; and Billy Wayne, 3.

Ink Drawings For Hines

Original country land ink drawings by Mrs. K.E. Hines were used for invitations for the retirement party and open house honoring her husband, K.E. Hines, at their home Sunday afternoon.

The come-and-go affair was attended by about 100 persons including railroading acquaintances of the Hines from Canyon, Amarillo and Hereford along with their friends in the city.

Reception hours were from 2-6 Sunday afternoon with the Hines' sons, Stephen and Mike, present for the occasion where Stephen's wife, Mary Alice, presided at the refreshment table.

The Hines' daughter, Sondra, was unable to be present from her home in Kansas but sent a floral tribute to her father on his retirement.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, left, dean of the West Texas State University school of agriculture, accepts a check from County Judge Woody Pond standing in for Frank M. Carter, Pampa cattleman, who has donated $1000 to the WTSU scholarship fund. Smallwood said the $1000 will be used in the scholarship program for the university.

Canyon Out Of All-Star Tournament

Canyon lost out in their bid for placing in the double elimination Babe Ruth 13-year-old All-Star tournament held in Canyon this week. Pampa, Borger, Panhandle Okies and Dumas played last night to determine the final two teams of the tournament.

In their first game, Canyon lost to Dumas by a score of 13-2. Canyon could not get any hitting and errors plagued them during the game. Canyon committed six errors during the game. Canyon's two runs came off of three hits.

Canyon left only six men on base during the game. The game ended after five innings because of the two hour time limit on each game during the tournament.

Dumas play was marked by the fact there were no errors committed by the Dumas defense.

In the second game, Borger downed Canyon, 12-3. Canyon scored three runs on two hits and committed three errors. Again Canyon could not seem to get the wood on the ball. Canyon's three runs came in an explosive first inning.

Borger scored 12 runs on 15 hits and committed four errors.

Golf Association Being Formed At Hunsley Hills

A golf association is being formed at Hunsley Hills Golf Course. The goal of the association is to help develop the course and increase participation by golfers according to Myron Dees, member of the golf association committee.

Cost of membership per year is $3 per person. The money will be used to provide a base to start the operations of the association and to be used for miscellaneous expenses that might occur through sponsoring tournaments. The money will also be used to create a fund to be utilized in putting on an end-of-the-year club tournament.

It is anticipated that the association will do five things. The association will elect officers to speak for members in relationship to the needs of the course, changes that need to be made and problems of maintenance. Committees, composed of golfers, will develop tournaments, handle entries, determine the amount of prizes and give the awards.

Committees will set up rules and regulations for the course and help enforce these rules. Such rules as proper etiquette on the course, proper action with golf carts, setting up fines for the abuse of the course and carts will be considered.

Development of pride in the maintenance and upkeep of the course and the future developments of the course will also be considered by the group.

A handicap committee to develop guidelines for turning in scores and to compute accurate handicaps that would be useful in local tournaments as well as when members go to other courses to play in tournaments will also be elected.

The association also anticipates starting a series of tournaments in the future that would be based on handicaps and would be played on Tuesday or Wednesday afternoon for nine holes.

Canyon Team Places Well In AAU Junior Olympic Preliminary

The West Texas AAU Junior Olympic Preliminary Track Meet was held in Hereford June 29. The team from Canyon placed well in the warm-up meet prior to the district meet that will be held in Borger Saturday, July 6.

Though record times were turned in by Canyon participants, the times did not count as new records because of the preliminary status of the meet.

The top two winners in each event at the Borger meet will advance to the regional meet held in Lubbock. From there, the winners will go to Waco for the state AAU meet. Winners at the state meet will represent the state of Texas in the national AAU level of competition.

Merry Johnson of Canyon, sister of Canyon High School's girl basketball and track standout, Robena Johnson, placed first in the 100 yard dash for intermediate girls with a time of 11.4 seconds. This is .1 second under the West Texas AAU Junior Olympic record of 11.5.

In the senior boys' 220 yard dash, Craig Johnson won with a time of 23.6 seconds which beat the present record. He was second in the 100 yard dash behind teammate Lyndon Brazile who won the event with a time of 10.2 seconds. Johnson was also second in the senior boys' long jump.

Penny Christopher was fourth in the midget girls' 100 yard dash and fifth in the 50 yard dash for midget girls.

The championship play-off for the men's service clubs will be held at the park with the winner of the Kiwanis-Rotary game playing the Lions Club team.

A Babe Ruth league play-off game is also scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the park.

And, a giant watermelon feed, free to the public, also begins at 7:30 p.m.

Several thousand persons came to the park last year to eat watermelon and watch the fireworks display, even though heavy rains dampened the grounds.

Chamber Manager Roland Black has ordered 3000 pounds of watermelon for the free feed, which is sponsored by the local VFW.

The fireworks display begins at 9:30 p.m. just west of the park. H.R. Fulton Jr. will fire off the fireworks.

more than the year before. In man-hour terms, the fire department spent 1659 man-hours fighting rural county fires, a jump of more than 150 per cent over the previous year.

Loudder said solid waste and fire calls are two problems very closely related to the growth of county-wide population. As the population increases so do solid waste costs and fire call costs.

He said the city officials will probably approach the coming contract on a cost-shared basis.

"I'm sure the county has incurred increased costs in the services they provide us," he said.

Currently, the county provides the city with police dispatching services and jail service for city prisoners.

Loudder said it might even be possible that the cost increases on the part of both city and county might offset each other.

Sheriff Cliff Longest told commissioners the Metro grant under the state Criminal Justice Council ran out as of June 30 and won't be considered for renewal until later this month. He said the CJC declined to pay the interim operational costs and each governmental unit which shares in the unit has been asked to pay $150 to cover expenses.

Commissioners also voted to charge each abstract firm which uses Randall County records the same $2 amount per tax certificate.

Tax assessor Mrs. Audrey Bruse explained that two local firms had been trading out information and were receiving free tax certificates.

If the city commission receives bids in line with those received by the county, the cost of a new city hall could skyrocket to nearly $2 million.

City commissioners are currently planning to spend about $1.3 million for construction of the city hall. They have contracted to issue $1.4 million in certificates of obligation to help finance the construction.

The last construction cost figure presented city commissioners was in June when HD&R made final visits to the city. They estimated construction to cost $1,190,088. Related fees and costs would make the total just over the $1.3 million figure.

City commissioners, meeting Monday night, just shook their heads when told of the county bid experience.

We've had shortages on all fronts for the past year . . . and was reading recently that there is now a "shortage of monkeys." Next year India is to cut its export of the rhesus monkeys down to only 30,000. This species of monkey is used in medical studies vital in research concerning polio and other human diseases and besides the cost of the monkeys has risen from $40 to $100 at present and is expected to rise to about $400 in the next few years.

The squirrel monkeys (a favorite breed for pet monkeys) are also used in the study of heart disease and hardening of the arteries. According to the article on "monkey shortage" we use some 56,000 monkeys each year in the United States to simply keep up with the demands of research.

Speaking of shortages it might pay to fix a farmer's can catcher in each back yard where the aluminum cans can be pitched rather than taken to the city dump. Although they get many aluminum cans back for recycling, the Coors recycling plant in Amarillo reported recently that they only get back about 1/3 of the aluminum cans sold to the public.

If every city dweller had a "can catcher" for this purpose then the Chamber of Commerce or some other non-profit group could collect the cans in a project and resell them to the recycling plant at Northeast 3rd for a handsome price of 15 cents per pound.

Bet some of our public school students would like the way college dean, Bill Ballantine, encourages his students to "make faces at the teachers," "wear pancake makeup to class" and "act goofy in class." Ballantine records their grades on these points as he is dean for the Ringling Brothers and Barnum-Bailey Circus Clown College at Orlando, Fla.

And at "clown college" they don't have those entrance exam papers either. Prospective students give their best at "fake falls, funny faces and acrobatic funny-stuff." Making a clown of oneself is "really a tough job" according to Ballantine who says that from the 60 openings in his fall class those who graduate from the "clown school" are not assured of a job with the circus.

SHERI, ANGELIQUE AND I traveled to Haskell on Friday where the Haskell CowBelles held a barbecue. The Corral Building on their fair grounds was filled with people of the community and representing all vocations. As President of the Texas CowBelles, I was the speaker for the evening. They are a most warm and gracious people and I enjoyed meeting them and being in their community.

Pete Burkhalter of Seymour, who has the sale ring in Haskell asked me if I knew Bill Eubanks. Mr. Burkhalter was very optimistic about the near future of the cattle markets.

Texas CowBelles have been responsible for the donation of two beef cattle to Girlstown, USA. Glover Packing Company donated the slaughter of these animals and TSTI is processing them free of charge for this worthy cause. A committee was appointed at the recent April Convention of CowBelles. This committee consisted of Marn Tyler of Hereford, Velma Tanner of Oldham County, Susan Head of Littlefield and Frances Owens of Caprock. If you wish to donate beef or cash for beef to Girlstown, please contact any CowBelle in your area. We'd be most happy to see that this beef is delivered to Girlstown. These girls are frequently without meat. Because of this, we feel this is a worthwhile cause for action.

Girlstown Whiteface campus will be celebrating its anniversary on July 13, 1974, with an awards program at 3 p.m. and a barbecue at 5. Texas CowBelles have been extended a special invitation to be present.

Local CowBelle organizations will be sponsoring a beef display in the Sunset Center Mall on July 11, 12, 13 from 10:00 to &;00 on Thursday and 10:00 to 6:00 both Friday and Saturday. TAP is helping with this display. Danny Presnall and Lynn Kemper will be with us for the three-day display. Drawings will be held for the cuts of beef at the close of the display on Saturday.

Mary Jane Miller will be the next hostess for the Happy CowBelles on July 10th, at 9:30 a.m. If the Dallas interviews proceed as planned by ANCA, these will be July 10. No telling what I'll tell those city people about eating beef!

See ya!

Palisades Palaver

Get A Little Sun

By MILDRED TURNER

YOU DO NOT have to lie out in the sun to get a suntan as some young people seem to think. Lately we have been mowing, trimming and hoeing, so that we can find the garden and house when we return from vacation and the Lindsey family reunion.

The girls whine "I've just got to get on my blanket and get a little sun or I'll just cook at the lake." My advice is to get their bathing suits on, get the mower, hoe, or trimmers and get with it.

Between the house and creek are fairly private and because of the trees you need to do some clipping which gives you different positions in the sun.

Besides, when you get to the lake you are not all alone (although the Hide Away was rather secluded when the Lindsey's bought it). It seems the kids are modest in their own yard and want to get into a far away nook with a book, a coke and spend their time getting a tan.

Picking dandelions on a slope (like my front yard) is an ideal way to tan the back of the legs and underside of the arm. Use one hand to pick and let the other dangle down the back. Switch arms occasionally. If you think you look silly with the one arm behind you and someone comes up you can always be scratching a mosquito bite back there! (The way mosquitos have been lately)! This mowing is helping to get rid of them.

I have found Garland's muscle shirts are excellent for wearing in the gardening - tanning process. Fit a little skimpy but if someone drives by you can always hunker down in your plants (like on Hee Haw).

Face the sun (while hoeing or mowing) to get a tan on the front and work with back to the sun to get tanned on back side. Work with elbows out to get them tanned; looks a little awkward but you can drop the hoe and put your hands on your hips if you get caught in this position.

Now . . . we are all tanned except the Adam's apple. The only thing I can figure out is to lie flat on a blanket, cover with an old sheet which has a hole cut out just to fit the Adams apple area and rest from all your work for 20 minutes each day for two weeks.

Your Adams apple will be a golden brown to match the rest of your tan, you can pack up, go on vacation with enough tan to keep from blistering whether you are on the beach, in the lake or wherever. You will tan a little deeper and you will have a smile as you remember the work you got finished while sneaking your tan.

THE B. C. Walkers, the Charles Hookers, and the Randy Hookers recently returned from their vacation spent in the lovely mountains at Trujillo, Colo. Douglas Hooker and family joined them there.

While in the snow capped mountains they found a baby rabbit about to freeze, which they rescued and fed warm baby food. The rabbit is still eating baby food and ignoring rabbit pellets.

Jo Delle says she tells him every day he's a rabbit but he seems to think he's a baby.

While in the mountains these four families enjoyed fishing, cycling, visiting, and relaxation. The men do the cooking.

On the way home they nearly always manage to go by and visit the Santa Clara Indian Reservation in New Mexico which they find very interesting. Welcome back to Palisades, neighbors.

Call me.

WT Symphonic Band Invited To Play For College Band Directors

The Symphonic Band at WTSU has been invited to perform for the College Band Directors National Association at Berkeley, Calif. in February. The Symphonic Band is an 85-piece ensemble selected from the membership of the WTSU marching band.

According to Dr. Gary Garner, director of bands at WTSU, the band was invited to perform at the association by the association's president, Dr. Carl Holvick, director of bands at the University of Northern Iowa.

Dr. Garner said that the cost for the trip, approximately $20,000, will be a burden for members of the group. Although the university will assist in paying part of this amount, the students will bear the major burden of raising the money.

Students that have been polled by Garner have been found enthusiastic about the trip. Garner said that this was the highest distinction a college or university band can earn. He stated that members for the Symphonic Band will be chosen early in the fall in preparation for the trip.

The association invited WTSU to send a tape of the Symphonic Band for their review this past year. From the tape, the invitation was granted.

Park Employee Found Dead In Trailer Home Monday

A 21-year-old state park employee was found dead in his trailer home in Palo Duro Canyon about 9:15 a.m. Monday, the victim of a gunshot wound to the head.

Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson had not ruled late Tuesday on the death of Jack Richard Carson, formerly of Sweetwater, who was found dead by fellow employees after he failed to report for work Monday.

He is expected to announce his determination of whether or not the death was a suicide this week.

The autopsy revealed death was due to a gunshot wound to the temple area of the head.

Randall County Sheriff Cliff Longest said he was called to the Carson trailer near the turnaround in Palo Duro Canyon about 9:30 a.m. Monday, and found the man slumped in a chair at his dining room table. No note was found, Longest said, but there were likewise no indications of foul play.

Carson had worked at the park since mid-May.

Funeral services are pending with a Sweetwater Funeral home. Local arrangements were by LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Local Students Visit Abroad

Sharla Wright and Mary Ann Heiman of Canyon were among a group of students from Amarillo-Canyon area on a three week trip recently to Belgium and France.

They spent two days sightseeing in Brussels and one day in Bruges in northern Belgium before travelling to France to spend the remainder of their trip. Also in the group were Candy Morrison of Borger, Mrs. Karen Harp, Mrs. Earlene Laminack, Robert Vick, Susan Peters and Donna Laminack of Amarillo.

While in France they took brief trips to Versailles and Fontainebleu and attended several remarkable concerts in the Sanite Chapelle and Notre Dame and the students saw some famous pieces of art at the Louvre, such as the "Venus de Milo" and the "Winged Victory."

Unfortunately, the Mona Lisa had been shipped to Tokyo, Japan, and did not return before the group left Paris. The students did not spend all their time in museums and art galleries, but devoted time to learning how to live in a foreign country, to talk to the people in French speaking countries, and to get to know a new way of life.

Some of the students spent one week end in the Loire Valley visiting a few of the famous chateaux of that area. They were glad to get away from the very busy life in Paris and to see something of the French wheat fields, the flower gardens full of roses, and the sun on fields of poppies.

The students said that although they didn't have a lot of money to spend, they enjoyed themselves and the whole trip was definitely an exceptional learning experience.

SHARLA WRIGHT, left, and Mary Ann Heiman of Canyon were among those students being served at the Montmartre Cafe in France during a recent trip to see historic sites, visit museums and get acquainted with life in a country abroad.

LITTLE ADAM LEWIS Hobbs, infant son of Ben and Joan Hobbs of Farwell, Tex., was Baptized during the 10:00 Mass last Sunday. God-parents, by proxy, are Richard D. and Mary Friemel. The Hobbs couple came through Umbarger enroute to California so Father could Baptize the baby, the third child of the Hobbs', and Father has Baptized the other two.

Mrs. Hobbs was housekeeper for Father when he was at Littlefield, before she was married. Mr. Hobbs has just retired from the U.S. Air Force and they are in the process of deciding which part of the country they want to settle in. Following the Baptism, they, along with Msgr. Schafle, were Sunday dinner guests of the Friemels.
